

Seminar Series presentations are considered a supplement to firefighter and Fire Officer classes offered by the Connecticut Fire Academy. Classes provided by the Connecticut Fire Academy comply with NFPA standards and best practices of the fire service. Seminar Series are also based on these standards and practices but can and often do include opinions of the subject matter experts that are delivering the presentation. Attending any number of the Seminar Series will allow the student to, not only add to their existing training; but also encourage the student to choose from the opinions of different speakers to develop their own style of strategies and tactics at emergency scenes, as well as inspire them to acquire more knowledge on fire service subjects.

2015 Seminar Series • Operational Concerns in Vacant Buildings

Operational Concerns in Vacant Buildings

This presentation tackles one of the biggest challenges in today's fire service. Since the downturn of the economy, in particular the housing market, more Fire Departments are responding to fires in abandoned buildings. A problem that once only plagued the urban firefighter now poses a new and ongoing threat to suburban & rural fire personnel. In this program we will discuss the need for ongoing intelligence gathering and preplanning for our tactical operations. The seminar will cover, in depth, the need for a search of the building. There will also be discussion related to common problems and the out-of-the-ordinary problems that can and will occur at these types of incidents.

Instructor Biography - Captain Bryan Emenecker

Bryan Emenecker has been in the fire service for over 27 years, starting as a volunteer in 1984. Bryan was hired by the Cherry Hill Fire Department 1994, serving a year and a half for that Department. He is presently with the Camden NJ Fire Department where he serves as a Captain of S-7 , and currently R-1. He is a Pro Board certified Fire Service Instructor and a member of the NJTF1 USAR team. He has instructed at many venues all over the east
